Porcelain Penguins by Global Views Dining table is Andiroba and hardwood solids, cherry and walnut veneers in a rich espresso finish. Dining chairs have nickel nailheads. Cast iron chandelier from France. Drapes are in a dark garnet silk with silver grommets. Martini set is a combination of William Sonoma crystal and Restoration Hardware shaker.

“le cuisine epatant” is stenciled in metallic paint over the stove top and in French means “magnificent food”. This was a gift from local designer/ painter extraordinaire Jeff Nestle, who collaborated with Debbie on the painting design for the house. There is so much that is truly magnificent about this kitchen with the baby grand piano shaped island with verde butterfly granite. The richness of the red and eggplant paint plays marvelously with the maple cabinets. The ceilings are painted in a silvery green that gives added glamour to the home.
